You will serve as the main point of contact between our customers and the moving team.

Responsibilities:

- Safely operate company vehicles (16-26 ft box trucks) for transporting goods.
 - Lead, supervise, and motivate moving crews throughout the entire moving process.
 - Perform all aspects of residential and commercial moves, including packing, loading, unloading, and unpacking.
 - Conduct thorough walk-throughs with customers at both origin and destination to assess inventory and special requirements.
 - Ensure correct usage of moving equipment and adherence to techniques to prevent damage to property and items.
 - Maintain clear, professional communication with customers and team members.
 - Complete all necessary documentation, such as contracts, inventory lists, and payment processing.
 - Keep the truck and moving equipment clean and organized.
 - Provide training to new team members on company procedures and safety standards.
 - Address customer concerns or issues promptly and professionally on-site.

Qualifications:

- Valid driver's license with a clean driving record (CDL not required).
- Previous experience in the moving industry is highly preferred.
- Proven experience in leading or managing a team/crew.
- Strong communication, leadership, and customer service abilities.
- Physical capability to lift, carry, and maneuver heavy items (up to 100 lbs) safely.

- Knowledge of proper lifting techniques and safety protocols.
 - Reliable, punctual, and highly organized.
 - Flexibility to work varying hours, including weekends and holidays as needed.

Benefits:

- Competitive hourly pay, plus tips and performance bonuses.
 - Opportunities for career advancement into management roles.
 - Paid training and development programs.
 - Positive and supportive team work environment.
 - Provision of company trucks, equipment, and uniforms.
